

Welshpool & District Horticultural Society

Once again Welshpool was treated to an incredible display of beauty at this year's "Spring Fantasy" Show, held on Friday 3rd and Saturday 4th November.

With over 770 entries the hall was a feast for the senses, bursting at the seams with vibrant flowers, plants, vegetables, photographs and of course happy busy people!! Thanks to the Judges who had a big job given the huge number of entries ... they are always so generous with their Horticultural knowledge and strategies for successful Showing!

Thank you to everyone for their continued support helping make our 63rd Spring Show such a success!! We look forward to seeing everyone again in March for our next Autumn Show!!

Prom Coast Centre for Children

Prom Coast Centres for Children is a not-for-profit, community based incorporated association that operates the kindergartens in Welshpool, Fish Creek, Foster and Toora as well as long day care in Foster. Find out more about us on our website <https://pccc.kindergarten.vic.gov.au/>

PCCC is overseen/governed by a volunteer committee made up of local parents and professionals and we are seeking new committee members to fill current vacancies, helping to ensure the future of these services in our region.

To join our committee, you don't need to have a child or family member currently enrolled with us. You don't need a history in childcare or early years education. You don't even need to have a history in business management. What we value is the ability to think strategically and make decisions which are in the best interest of our Prom Coast children, and the future of early years education and care services in our region.

If you feel like you could have something to offer us, we would love to hear from you. You can email our Executive Support Officer Marilyn Heggie via com@pccc.net.au or phone 5683 9800.

Port Welshpool & District Maritime Museum

LOOKING BACK THROUGH THE AGES:

Recently the Museum was contacted by Pat Webb a 91 year old lady, who is a great Aunt of one of the first to teach at Port Welshpool State School 3375. Her name was Miss Elsie Cornell; she taught at the school in the very early 1900's. The reason we were contacted, while Pat was having a Spring clean she found 2 books that had been presented to Miss Cornell on her leaving Port Welshpool. Pat contact the Museum to ask if we would be interested in having them, and we are thrilled.

Two houses still stand proudly today in Townsend Street that were once part of the education system; one where Miss Cornell taught and the other across the road in later years was the head masters house, in early years there was only one teacher, one room to teach all grades. If anyone can help with stories or photos we would love to hear from you.

As the school year slowly comes to an end and children take the next step in their lives, whether it be starting school, or stepping up into Secondary College or maybe school is over and it's off to a career but whatever the plan we wish you all the very best and enjoy your break before the next chapter of life starts.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS BACK WHEN WE WERE KIDS:

How we loved this time. Life was a big adventure.

We woke of a morning, fun at our disposal. Maybe we had a few chores to do, but they wouldn't take long, as we had better things in mind. Just the same we needed to keep mum sweet, as we planned our fun for the day, in our minds. With the chores done, off we set to meet our pals. Trust and responsibility at our planning, and, just in case, if it went "a little bit wrong," we would always learn from our mistakes, probably with a good talking too. OR the dreaded strap.

This story from our archives. I felt it said a lot about childhood and the adventures we shared with our pals. In this case you can imagine the despair of the parents to say the least, but experience is a great tool. These kids didn't need an EPERB, or mobile phone, no, just take cover and wait.

ARGUS [Melbourne]. MISSING BOYS FOUND ON SNAKE ISLAND. Tuesday 29th. November 1938
As it reads; After they had spent the night on Snake Island near Port Welshpool five boys were found safe yesterday. Four men had searched anxiously all night for the boys who had left Port Welshpool in a dinghy on Sunday.

The boys were William Dobbs, aged 14, Frank Roberts 13 his brother Robert 10, Alan Olsen 11, and brother Clarrie 9. The boys rowed to Snake Island on Sunday afternoon, and then waded across the channel to Big Snake Island. When they prepared to return they found that the tide had risen and they could not reach the dinghy. They spent the night in a cattlemen's hut where they were found by Mr. Ferlazzo. WELL...maybe this adventure went "a little bit wrong", But hey..... this adventure was an experience of childhood and living; thankfully,

"all's well that ends well."

Beloka Kelpies – Leadership Camp 2023

We recently had 12 students over from the Meredith, Lallal and Cape Clear Primary Schools for Leadership Camp. They worked the sheep with and without kelpies, played with pups, did some agility and did many more activities. A great three days, learning about how to become a better leader.
